20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The President's Advisory Council on Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships produces recommendations to the President on how to improve government partnerships with faith-based and community organizations on a number of important topics.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The membership of the Council is very diverse, including members from diverse religious backgrounds, as well as representatives of secular community organizations. The membership is also balanced based on gender, race and region of the country.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Council holds three to four in-person meetings a year with regular Council conference calls, scheduled as needed. The Council did not convene in FY 2017.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This Council was formed by Executive Order, as part of President Obama's vision for the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships. This Council provides independent advice to the President and the Executive Director of the Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships on how to form the most effective and responsible partnerships.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All deliberative Council meetings are open to the public.

21. Remarks

The Council did not convene in FY 2017.
